

I oppose the banks being able to call those on the do not call list. If anyone wants a bank, they can call them. Why should we all suffer? The Do Not Call law was the best thing that has happened to Indiana.